

"High Times"

Peppers Fairmont Resort is situated in the heart of the world-heritage listed Blue Mountains west of Sydney, perfect for couples, families or groups.

While the resort's uninterrupted views and invigorating mountain air are enough to attract many guests, there's also an exciting variety of leisure and relaxation possibilities.

ACCOMMODATION

Recently refurbished, its 210 rooms and suites are tastefully furnished with spectacular mountain views.

- Luxury Suites – 4th floor suite with queen size bed and large oval spa, overlooking Jamison Valley
 - Superior Rooms – queen or king size bed with valley, golf or garden views
 - Family Suites – king size bed on 1st floor, with private kitchenette
- Family Rooms – a combination of queen, king & twin configuration, on 1st, 2nd and 3rd floors
- Deluxe Rooms – queen or king size bed with valley or lake views, some with additional sofa bed
- Resort Rooms – double, queen or king bed on 1st or 2nd floor with daybeds offering garden views

DINING

At Peppers Fairmont Resort variety extends to dining options with two restaurants and a bar. Enjoy an intimate dinner for two at the new restaurant, Eucalypt. With the amazing creations of French Chef, Ludo, excellent wines and a stylish contemporary design, eucalypt provides a new height in fine dining. For a more relaxed meal there's the variety of a buffet at Jamison's restaurant, or a simple snack by the pool.

RECREATION FACILITIES

Guests can enjoy a host of great activities including golf, snooker, tennis, squash, indoor and outdoor pools and aqua-aerobics. Beauty treatments and stress-relieving massage, gym and hydrotherapy are available.

LOCAL ATTRACTIONS

Local attractions include bushwalking, lookouts, Jenolan Caves, The Three Sisters, scenic tours, horse riding and The Edge Cinema. The resort is just 5 minutes from the charming village of Leura.
