

"Heavenly Indulgence"

This serene and beautiful retreat was once home to the Brigidine Order of nuns in Coonamble, about 600kms west of the Hunter.

After relocation to the Hunter Valley and careful reconstruction, the retreat now sits amidst landscaped gardens and the vineyards of Pepper Tree Winery.

ACCOMMODATION

Intimate and stylish, Peppers Convent has recently been refurbished. There are just 17 elegant guest rooms.

- Deluxe Rooms – Queen-sized indulgence in airy rooms with French doors.
- Superior Rooms – King-sized rooms including your own private lounge area.

DINING

You can look forward to fine cuisine at the renowned Robert's Restaurant, which is a short stroll away. Or you can enjoy a light meal from our all-day menu, created by Chef of Chez Pok restaurant of nearby Peppers Guest House, either on the terrace, in the lounge area or on your private balcony.

RECREATION FACILITIES

Facilities include an outdoor pool, tennis court and indoor spa. There's also an endota spa at nearby Peppers Guest House.

LOCAL ATTRACTIONS

Beyond the peace and charm of Peppers Convent, the Hunter Valley offers lots of things to see and do, including winery tours, antique shops and galleries, bi-plane flights, skydiving and ballooning.

LOCATION

Peppers Convent is located in the Hunter Valley, approximately 2 hours drive north of Sydney on the F3 Freeway.
