

"Spirit of the Hunter"

Nestled in the heart of Hunter Valley wine country and surrounded by beautiful gardens and vineyards, Peppers Guest House is one of the Hunter's best loved retreats.

The intimate, relaxed atmosphere at Peppers Guest House, along with the comfort and elegance of its accommodation, and a long-standing reputation for exceptionally fine food and wine, ensure that guests return year after year.

ACCOMMODATION

The accommodation comprises 48 rooms, including a four bedroom homestead which is ideal for groups.

- Classic Rooms – on ground floor level with terrace access.
- Vintage Rooms – on the first floor with property views.
- Colonial Rooms – on ground and first floor with queen beds, interconnectable with a Classic or Vintage Room.
- Heritage Suites – king-sized rooms with a separate lounge area.
- Homestead – fully self-contained with open fire, 4 twin/double rooms, 2 bathrooms, wide verandas, and courtyard with BBQ and children's play area. Access to all services and facilities.

DINING

Jamie Hartcher, chef at Chez Pok restaurant, is famous for his ability to blend regional delicacies, matching them to local wines to create intense flavours. His menu emphasises simplicity and freshness of ingredients with French, Asian and Italian influences. The Chez Pok wine list is extensive, reflecting the best the Hunter has to offer.

RECREATION FACILITIES

One of the great pleasures of a stay at Peppers Guest House is the endota spa where you'll find a fresh and personal approach to spa treatments. There's also indoor and outdoor pools, sauna, bicycles, boules, tennis court and magnificent gardens.

LOCAL ATTRACTIONS

Activities in the area include winery tours, ballooning, bush walking, golf, horse and carriage rides.

LOCATION

Peppers Guest House is located an easy 2 hours drive north of Sydney on the F3 freeway.
